DIRECTOR OF PLANNING AND ZONING EVALUATED

by KIMBERLY BLAKER

At the June 27 Huron Township Board meeting, a periodic personnel review for Director of Planning and Zoning was scheduled. Before the review, during public comments, Director of Planning and Zoning, Leslie Meyers received praise and support from the Township residents. Three members of the Glaab family praised the Director.

David Glaab told the Board, "I think we have the finest team of department heads." D. Glaab said that as her direct supervisor for six months he found Meyers to be very hard working, innovative, and well liked by the community. He continued, "Having her in this position is a tremendous asset."

R.P. Lilley said that Meyer is well known throughout the state of Michigan. "She's good for Huron Township," he stated.

Peter Glaab, Jr. objected to the employee evaluation taking place during an open meeting. He said the department

TOWNSHIP CLERK CRITICIZES BOARD MEMBERS

by KIMBERLY BLAKER

At the June 13 Huron Township Board meeting, Clerk Dawnette Bowers lambasted Board members for what she perceived as an attack on Township employees and poor judgement in some recent Board decisions.

She began by telling the Board that upon returning from out of town and watching the previous Board meeting on TV, she "was totally disgusted at the actions of some of the Board members at this meeting."

She proceeded with reading a lengthy letter she had written complaining that no one had asked her about the policies and procedures that were being updated. She chastised the Board for approving the purchase of time clocks. Bowers was angry because the Board's decision to purchase time clocks was an unnecessary expenditure.

Apparently, the Board had not been made aware that the installation of time clocks was underway through recently purchased software.

Bowers then expressed dis-

HURON SCHOOL ANNUAL BUDGET HEARING HELD

by KIMBERLY BLAKER

At the June 18 Huron Board of Education meeting, the annual budget for the year ending June 30, 2002 was presented by Business Manager Carol Miles. General fund expenditure assumptions include a three-percent salary increase, five-percent to 13-percent health insurance increase, $220,000 for textbooks and equipment, $55,000 for roof repair and bleachers, and a natural gas increase of $45,000.

Staff changes that will affect the general fund are the reduction of two elementary teachers and the addition of a librarian and three teachers for the new reading program.

General fund mills levied will be 17.5087, reduced from 17.846 for the 2000-01 school year. The budgeted general fund revenues and expenditures both reflect a slight increase. The year-end general fund balance is expected to be $784,613, which has been the average year-end balance of the past four years.

The debt fund will see an increase of 3.63 mills because of the 2001 bond issue, making the total debt mills 6.50.

Other funds such as athletic and cafeteria will see slight increases in both revenues and expenditures in most areas, as well as their year-end balances.

In other news:

- The Board also approved hiring two new teachers to replace the High School Spanish and computer teachers who resigned.

- After a short discussion, the new athletic eligibility and training rules were approved for the 2001-2002 school year.

Trustee Ken Appleby expressed concern that in the new policy it wasn't clear how a student charged with a felony would be handled. He pointed out that the policy wasn't clear whether eligibility would be denied based on a conviction or simply being charged with a felony. He reminded the Board of the Constitutional right of being "innocent until proven guilty."

Superintendent Thomas Hosler said that if a student is charged and then later not convicted, the district could be faced with a lawsuit. He said

A RENTON CAREER DAY STORY

Eastern Michigan University, I had a lot of fun. We asked questions to the students and I learned that at college there is no dress code, you can schedule your classes at any time, and that they have all sorts of classes you can take like horseback riding, swimming, kayaking classes, and even yoga.

There's lots of stuff to do there like shop in their big gift shop, work out in the gym, or run the track and go swimming in their olympic-size pool. When you get hungry there's a food court where there is lots of food to pick from. There is also a doctor's office if they are sick. Their dorms were cool. You can decorate your dorm as much as you want. When it's time to study for a big test they have a three-floor library with computers. It is open until three in the morning, but when there is a lot of tests going on it's open until 5 a.m. I think this trip really inspired me to go to college there.

The month of July is so hot that who feels like cooking and eating a big old meal. Salads are the perfect thing to fill the bill.

I am not talking about an iceberg lettuce salad (Yawn). But in the tradition of Al Fresco style, of course. This first salad is a great accompaniment to any grilled meal.

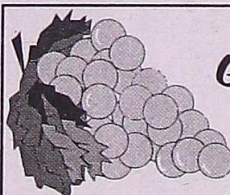

Any questions or comments can be sent to "Al Fresco" care of The Huron River Weekly.

CLASSIFIEDS WORK!

Michigan Rocks

by MARK CLARK

Welcome. Here are my picks for three of the best local CD's

Roll to "A folkie Woody Allen in bib overalls, a man of constant sorrow but with lots of faith in the resilience of the human spirit and a suitcase full of humor to make the pain go away."

On "Lunette" Roll brings together a marriage of alternative country, rock and folk featuring Appalachian fiddles, rockin' guitars and even released last year. As always send any comments to jmpclark@glob-albiz.net.

JIM ROLL

Jim Roll, an Ann Arbor-based singer/songwriter released his second CD "Lunette" last Spring on the Texas-based New West Records.

Allan Goldsmith likened

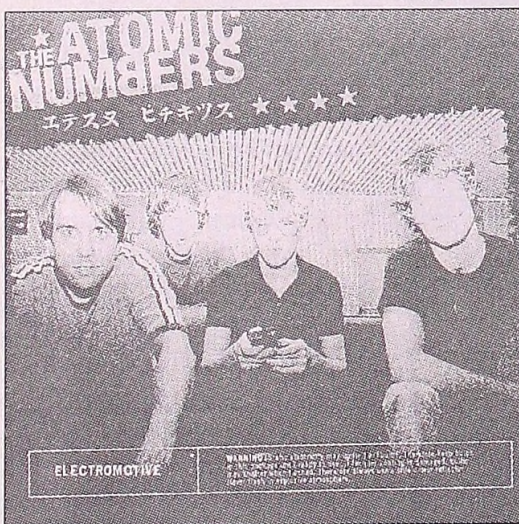

THE WORKHORSE MOVEMENT

cellos in what one critic described as "a most glorious ride." My favorite cuts are "1955," "Blind Me" and "$15 and a Bottle of Wine."

THE WORKHORSE MOVEMENT

Voted "best band" last year in Real Detroit Weekly's Reader's poll, the

ATOMIC NUMBERS

Workhorse Movement play aggressive, energy filled, heavy hard-core rock. Beat girl Wendy Case describes their latest CD "Sons of the Pioneers" as "Black Sabbath inspired groove ... it'll smoke yer woofers." While the entire CD rocks, I bought the CD on the strength of just one song "Heavy." Featuring vocals that sound like the second coming of Jim Morrison along with incredibly crunchy guitar, "Heavy" is one of the best hard rock songs I've ever heard. For more info go to www.workhorsemovement.com

ATOMIC NUMBERS

Rising out of Detroit's rock scene in 1997 with the intention they say, of saving rock and roll. The Atomic Numbers "bring an arsenal of guitar fury, clafy song work and wickedly awesome harmonies." Billboard Magazine called their new CD "Electromotive," "Nearly unbearably clever" and that it is "Chock full of fun rock tunes."

The CD was produced by the Verve Pipe's Brian Vander Ark with my favorite tracks being "I Am in Remote Control," "In Your Power" and "Who Killed Rock and Roll." For more info, go to www.atomicnumbers.com.

ST. MATHEWS CELEBRATES 40TH ANNIVERSARY

St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Flat Rock, celebrated the 40th anniversary of the ordination of the congregation's priest, Gene Curry. The June 24 Sunday Morning Eucharist featured special prayers of thanks, and some of the pastor's favorite hymns. Members of the congregation and some friends and neighbors were present to enjoy the vent. He wore the original red stole given him at his ordination as a deacon 40 years ago.

Father Curray has served at St. Matthew's, Flat Rock, since 1991. He also works full-time as an engineer at Ford Motor Company, Dearborn. He was ordained deacon on June 25, 1961, in Grace Cathedral, at the top of Nob Hill, San Francisco, California. He was made priest on January 25, 1962, in Midland, Texas. Since 1965, he has served in many different locations in the Diocese of Michigan, as a non-stipendiary priest (one who does not receive a regular salary for pastoral work, but serves part-time as needed in various churches).

The Episcopal Church is the American descendant of the Church of England, which came to the North American Continent with the Jamestown, Virginia, settlement in 1607. After the revolution, the church became an independent member of the Anglican Communion.

either way, however, an attorney would be consulted.

However, the Board also discussed the possibility of a student being charged with a felony in which guilt is already known and just pending trial. In such a case, the Board didn't feel allowing the student to continue in the athletic program should be allowed.

The Board approved the policy as it stood so the district can make a determination based on the situation, under the advice of an attorney.

• Treasurer Richard Zavodsky asked the Superintendent to meet with administrators and come up with some ideas to cut costs. He said the district's is tight this year and needs to make up $60,000.

• Appleby reported that at the recent Local Development Finance Authority meeting the Authority discussed expansion of the LDFA area. Appleby opposed the expansion because he didn't feel it was good use of the area.

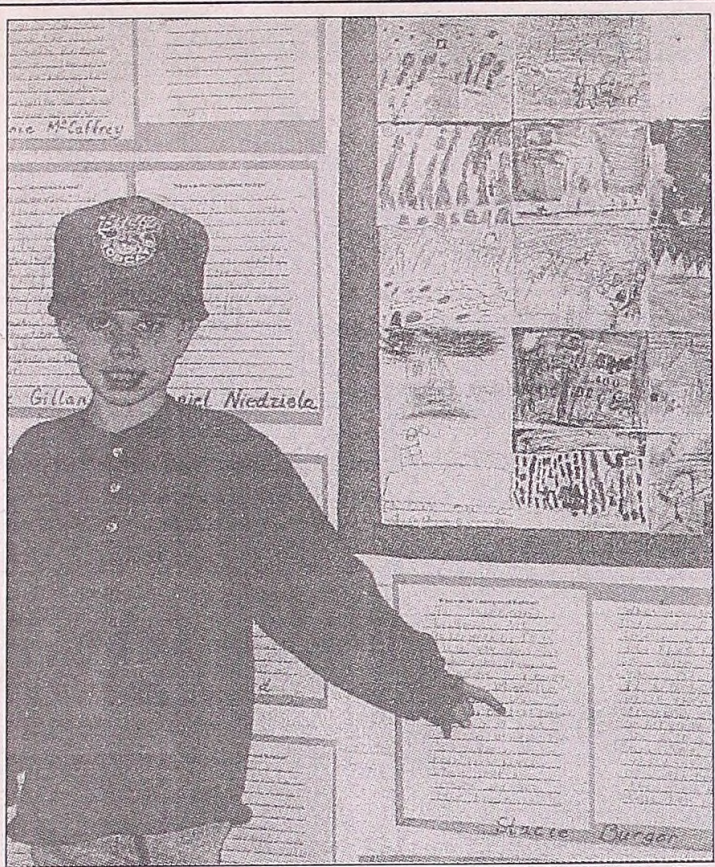

• Appleby requested that the Board express an opinion regarding recent federal legislation that is going to require more testing in public schools. He said he feels local board are losing control and wants to know what kind of effect such legislation will have on the District.

• The Superintendent said that a State proposal could be approved that would only pleasure with the Board's decision to discontinue use of the Township's automated phone system. Therefore, residents had difficulty getting through at times. With the new automated system there are now seven lines coming into the building.

Bowers didn't mention the possibility of using a seven-line system that can be answered by the Township's receptionist, which would resolve both issues.

She continued by telling Trustee Mary Lou Carey that it was unprofessional "to attack my deputy clerk." She complained that two Board members embarrass and attack Township employees regularly.

Later Trustee Marlene Krause informed Bowers, "I'm really disappointed because when I got elected I thought we would act as a team... This phone system is a big issue in this Township. I don't think it would hurt for a human voice to answer this phone."

Krause proceeded, "As far as putting employees down, yeah, it needs to stop and I'm probably guilty of it myself. But I don't think, Dawnette, you were very professional yourself to raise your voice to me in front of employees [at the Township Hall] and basically call me an idiot in front of them..."

Carey said she was in agreement with Krause. "I'm not trying to micro manage. I've asked questions [to Township employees and department heads] because people ask me those questions.

Your Cosmic Link For The Week Of July 5th thru July 11th

Cancer June 22 - July 23

You survived the flares and sparklers but beware of those who are out to burn you. Not all is what it seems. Lost love? Or are you the one lost? Find self in mirror. Lucky #9999.

Leo July 24 - August 23

No tears as watch children come and go. They always come back. Hand out or in your pocket. Time to change the combination? Look beyond own thoughts. May cause headache. Lucky #9968.

Virgo Aug 24 - Sept. 23

Visit with friends always good. May find some distant. Is distance good?

Others may be trying to protect selves from pain. Allow children to fly but not off garage roof. Lucky #1347.

Libra Sept. 24 - Oct. 23

A rose is a rose? Don't smell too many feet. Not as sweet? Or sweeter. Watch small children with extra caution. May not be where should have been. Was this your job? Lucky #3496.

Scorpio Oct. 24 - Nov. 22

Parents test your nerves. May be time for that vacation. Watch children around water, large or small. Lucky #4631.

Sagittarius Nov. 23 - Dec. 21

Okay, so it didn't go as planned.

Oops. Is the next one on the way? Summer jobs add to fury. Can be handled with calm actions. Ask spouse for help. Lucky #0196.

Capricorn Dec. 22 - Jan. 20

Headaches! Some know that feeling. Need to set on the things many see as problems. Caution! Lucky #8314.

Aquarius Jan. 21 - Feb. 19

So, you think you need a tranquilizer? Well look around you. And just wait until next week. Special friend asks much of you. Rub back. A little scratch behind the ears may cure what ails you. Go for it. Lucky #844.

Pisces Feb. 20 - Mar. 20

Okay! So you made your choice.

Stand by your word as painful as it can be. Look toward Fall. Look to others for friendship? Not likely. Ask self why. But you know answer. Lucky #0993.

Aries March 21 - April 20

Summer heat got you down? Others tired of your complaints as you complained all Winter, too. Take family and friends on weekend outing. Don't forget the baby. Lucky #0000.

Taurus April 21 - May 21

Are you still smiling? Bring added sunshine to others. Can it be true that you continue to brighten others? Yes? No? Ask family and friends. Ask the stars. Lucky #1111.

Maggie's Musings

Margaret O'Kelley

Whew! I am so glad that we, as Township taxpayers, do not have to pay for warm and fuzzy. To have a human answer the phones or not to have a human answer the phones. That is the question? HOW DOES THE SCHOOL DISTRICT DO IT? I know in the district's central office, that one person answers the phone for six people. The high school surely must receive more than 400 phone calls per day when school is in session. Guess what? They have a human answer the phone. What a conundrum!

head should evaluate employees. He also praised Meyer's performance.

Rita Hart told the Board that because developers know how to get around the system, "We need people who know the rules and regulations ..."

Meyers has been an asset to the community."

Michael Glaab said he was disappointed when the Board discussed not including Meyer's direct supervisor in the evaluation team. M. Glaab said he was glad to see her supervisor will be included. He continued, "I've heard people say she's [Meyers] the developer's best friend. Meyers is our best friend as a resident of this community."

Louise Gajada pointed out that Meyers "is objective, listens to citizens, is knowledgeable, and is fair. She's doing a good job. We need her."

Ken Appleby observed the disarray when he first moved to the area. "Leslie has brought a breath of fresh air to this department," he praised.

Supervisor John Mitchell told the Board that he's amazed at what Huron Township is trying to do with the staff shortage in the building department. He said he evaluated four other nearby communities and found that Huron's building department has an activity level 20-percent higher than the average of the four yet with an average of two fewer employees.

Meyers told the Board "I spend one third of my time as a building official, which I'm not qualified to do." She said she spends another third doing clerical work, which she wasn't hired to do, thus costing the Township a lot for clerical duties. "I am one person doing three jobs," she pointed out.

Meyers continued, "I gave up a job I loved to come here. I took this job because I wanted to make a difference." She explained that if the building department had adequate staffing, there are a number of things she would like to help each Board member to achieve for the Township.

Board members then asked Meyers several questions. O'Kelley asked about transportation needs.

Meyers said that the building department desperately needs a vehicle. Building inspectors and other department employees must use their personal vehicles but are not reimbursed for mileage.

Meyers answered a question about licensing requirements by explaining that a license isn't required for the position she holds and that she feels confident in her ability to fulfill her job description. However, she pointed out, "I'm not trained to be a building official." Meyers said that today it's very unusual for someone in her position to also be a certified building inspector.

Trustee Nora Adkins asked how many grants Meyers has applied for in the last year. Meyers said that she has only been able to apply for one because the department is understaffed. She said that one grant usually takes 80 hours to write.

The evaluation process will continue at the next Board meeting when the Treasurer is present.
